

P/2025 F2 (SWAN25f) (Comet)
Magnitude: 7.23 Coma Diameter: 2.5' SBr: 17.9 Mag/arcsec<sup>2</sup> Earth Distance: 1.2 AU

|                |              |              |              |
|----------------|--------------|--------------|--------------|
| ● Globular Cl. | ◻ Ref. Neb.  | ● Quasar     | • Mult. Star |
| ◊ Dark Neb.    | ◊ Planetary  | ☄ Comet      | • 5          |
| ● Globule      | ◻ HII Region | • Galaxy     | ● 2          |
| • Open Cl.     | ◻ SN Remnant | • Galaxy Gr. | • 3          |
|                |              |              | • 4          |
|                |              |              | ● -1         |
|                |              |              | ● 0          |
|                |              |              | ● 1          |

6.8°

Pegasus

|                                                                                                    |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                    |                                                                                                  |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  Globular Cl. |  Dark Neb.  |  HII Region |  Galaxy       |  Mult. Star |
|  Globule      |  SN Remnant |  Galaxy Gr. |  Comet        |                                                                                                  |
|  Open Cl.     |  Ref. Neb.  |  Planetary  |  Minor Planet |                                                                                                  |